

Environmental policy

HUHTAMAKI Flexible Packaging Czech, Inc., in Prague prints flexible packaging films for the European food, beverage and drugstore industry. From the nature of the use of eco-printing technology is HUHTAMAKI Flexible Packaging Czech Inc., environmental friendly company to the environment and working environment. Internal company standards are set up with the aim of reducing energy consumption and the amount of waste produced.

Company gives an undertaking to do:

- Evaluate the current legal environment and fulfil legal and other requirements for their effective introduction into practice.
- Constantly maintain and improve the company environmental profile while maintaining and developing business activities.
- Constantly looking for ways to reduce the consumption of energy, raw materials, semi-finished products and other materials, including separation and disposal in accordance with applicable legislation.
- Increase awareness of employees at all levels, encourage them to save natural resources and motivate them to carry out activities the environmental way.
- By preventative measures to prevent environmental incidents and accidents in the company.
- Preferentially take raw materials and semi-finished products from suppliers who implement or have already implemented the principles of Environment Management System.
- Communicate openly toward employees, local authorities and the wider public in the environmental area.

.....
Martin Němec
Managing Director of Huhtamaki Flexible Packaging Czech a.s.
Prague, 3. 2. 2017